

Learning Support Teacher's Aide (Junior School)

While this is a full-time role, applicants seeking part time work are welcome to apply. Applications are invited from learning support aides. Experience and qualifications preferred. Commencing in July 2023.

Rouse Hill Anglican College (RHAC) is a highly regarded independent co-educational Christian school with approximately 1,600 students from Pre-K to Year 12. The College is located in the Hills District in Sydney's northwest and is committed to a professional, collaborative and supportive workplace for all employees. The College has modern facilities, is very well resourced and can be easily accessed by car or the Metro Northwest rail.

Christians who are actively involved in a church are particularly encouraged to apply.

The work of a learning support aide

The role of the Learning Support Aide is to support student learning by working collaboratively with teachers to develop and implement strategies to allow students with disability and additional learning and support needs to access the curriculum in a range of subjects.

The applicant should be an effective communicator, with strong literacy and numeracy skills, and be able to perceive the needs of individual students in a class setting and take practical steps to meet those needs.

Because this position involves working in our Pre-K program, preferred applicants will have skills and experience in working with 3 and 4-year-old children.

Responsibilities include:

- ▶ working as part of a collaborative team to build strong pastoral relationships with students which support them to develop a growth mindset
- ▶ supporting students in classrooms across all KLAs
- ▶ working with individual students on a 1:1 or small group basis
- ▶ assisting teachers with modification / differentiation of programs/ assessments
- ▶ supporting teachers implementing IEPs
- ▶ attending Faculty and Staff meetings and professional learning opportunities as required

The Contract

Teachers' Aides at RHAC are employed under the current Multi Enterprise Agreement for support and operational staff, more commonly known as the support staff MEA. The MEA outlines salaries and employment rights and responsibilities.

Child Safety

The College is committed to effectively and practically implementing the Child Safe Standards developed by the Office of the Children's Guardian.

Applications

Email: employment@rhac.nsw.edu.au. Please write learning support application in the subject line.

Applications should include:

- ▶ The RHAC teacher application form (available on the school website in the employment section).
- ▶ A cover letter and curriculum vitae. Please specify whether you are applying for the permanent or temporary vacancy and if you would prefer part time or full-time work.
- ▶ The names and contact details of two referees, including a professional referee and preferably a referee who can attest to the Christian beliefs and practices of the applicant. Applicants who would prefer not to provide their referee's details when they apply will be asked to provide that information if they are offered a first-round interview.
- ▶ A current WWCC number
- ▶ A certified copy of a testamur of any applicable academic qualifications.
- ▶ Official evidence that the applicant has been vaccinated for Covid-19 or a statement in their cover letter that they have not received the Covid-19 vaccine.

Applications close on Friday 9 June 2023.

Potential applicants are very welcome to contact the College to have an informal, confidential conversation with the Principal or the Head of Junior School about the role before they formally apply.
